Organization Title: Youth Advisory Council

Summary of the Activity:

I currently sit on an advisory council for Indigenous former and current youth in care. We work directly with Secwépemc Child & Family Services Agency (SCFS) on providing valuable input, regarding the care of Indigenous youth in care. The last 3 years have given me insight to how policies and procedures are done. It has also given me the opportunity to share my experience as a youth in care to help create better standards for social work practices.

As a youth representative, I believe it is important to engage in conversations about sustainable practices, and ways to implement new procedures – such as, better recycling and spreading awareness.
