Summary of Employment Activity:

In 2018, my home community Simpcw employed me as a student field technician. Before starting fieldwork, I completed a mandatory archeological inventory and CMT training certificate. Through this certification, I learned valuable skills in archeological surveying. Such as, identifying and interpreting site locations, collecting/ recording field data. Working alongside people in professions such as, archeology and biology gave me new insight into how sustainable management practices can be done.

Dates/Duration of Employment: May 2018 – September 2018

Verification by Third Party Individual:

Name: Lynn Guitard
Title: AOA Coordinator
Phone Number: (250)672-9995
